

Active Shooter Instructor

Rhein-Main Regional Range Complex and MOUT Site Mainz/Wiesbaden

This course is designed to give the instructor the knowledge and skill to train first responding officers to an Active Shooter incident. Active Shooter incidents are becoming more prevalent in law enforcement and the need to train officers in how to respond has become a vital part of law enforcement training. Instructor development issues will also be discussed as students will be “hands-on” teaching practical skills throughout this course. These practical skills will be taught with its focus on tactics. Firearms drills will be taught using Force-on-Force Munitions, however, these same drills can later be applied to “live-fire” range drills or high level scenario based training.

Outcomes:

- Discuss Active Shooter incidents
- Determine the threat
- Use site surveys
- First responder tactics
- Development of Response Team(s)
- Breaching tactics and capabilities
- Tactical Operations Center
- Tactical room entry and clearing
- Use of ballistic shields & armor
- Low light issues
- Outdoor rapid response rescue
- Practical drills

Duration: 2-Days (24-Hours) – 12-hours each day

Tuition: $695.00

Ammunition: Included

Equipment Required: Pistol and a Rifle or Shotgun, duty belt (or tactical vest) with all issued gear, body armor, flashlight and handcuffs with key. Participants should come prepared to train in all weather conditions and should bring a hydration system or water bottle. Wraparound eye protection, ear protection, and brimmed hats will be worn during all live fire training. Participants should wear clothing suitable for training, but similar to garments worn while working. It is highly recommended that each student provide their own Converted Marking Cartridge Firearm and certified protective gear for force-on-force training. If the participant’s agency is unable to provide this training equipment, the necessary equipment will be provided however the student may not be issued a training weapon similar to their duty weapon.
